Kaliza lives in Bwisungane village. She is a second year pupil. She is an intelligent girl at school and at home.

At home, she often revises her lessons. She is always looking for ways to improve her education through e-learning. So, she needs a laptop.

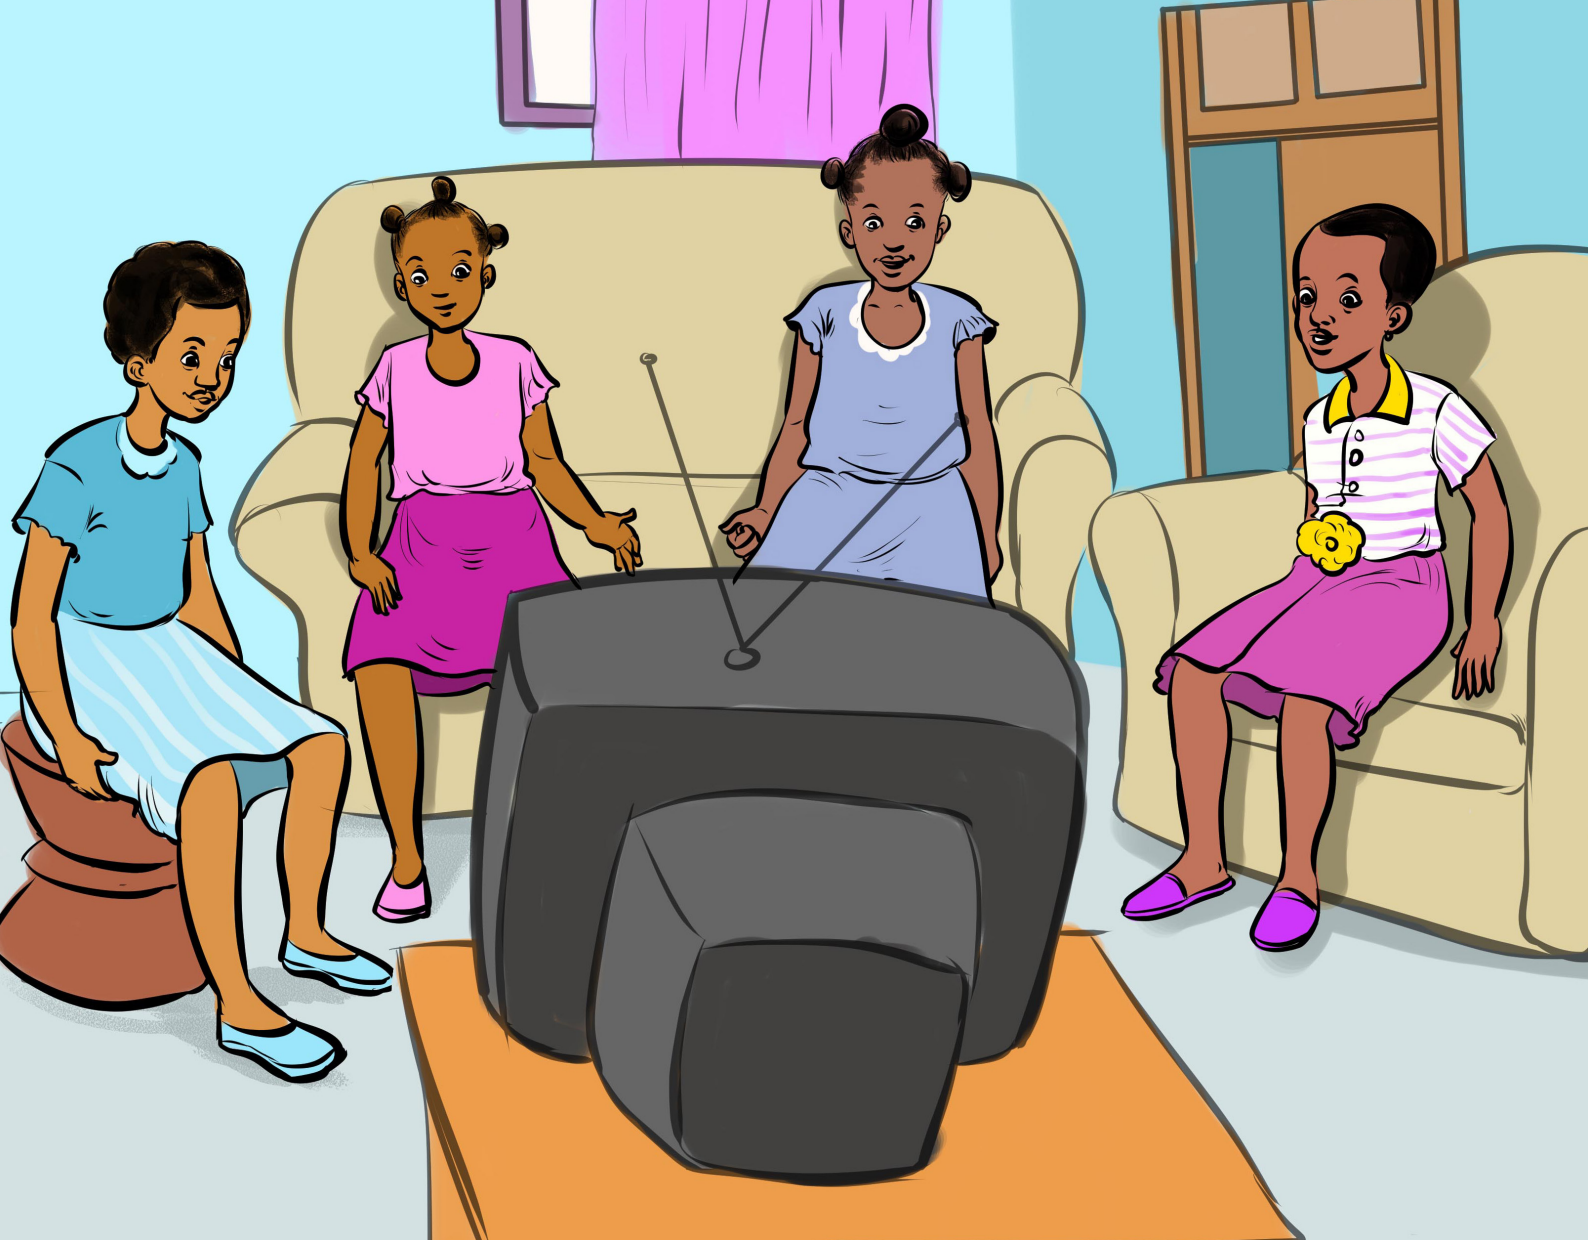

Her little sister Cyuzuzo likes adventure.
She is known for hanging out with many friends.

Kaliza asked her parents, “Can you help me start a vegetable garden during the holidays?” “Why?” asked her parents. “So that I may buy my own laptop,” said Kaliza. “Yes, we shall help you our daughter,” replied her parents.

During the holidays, Kaliza started her project. Cyuzuzo said, “What is my sister doing?”

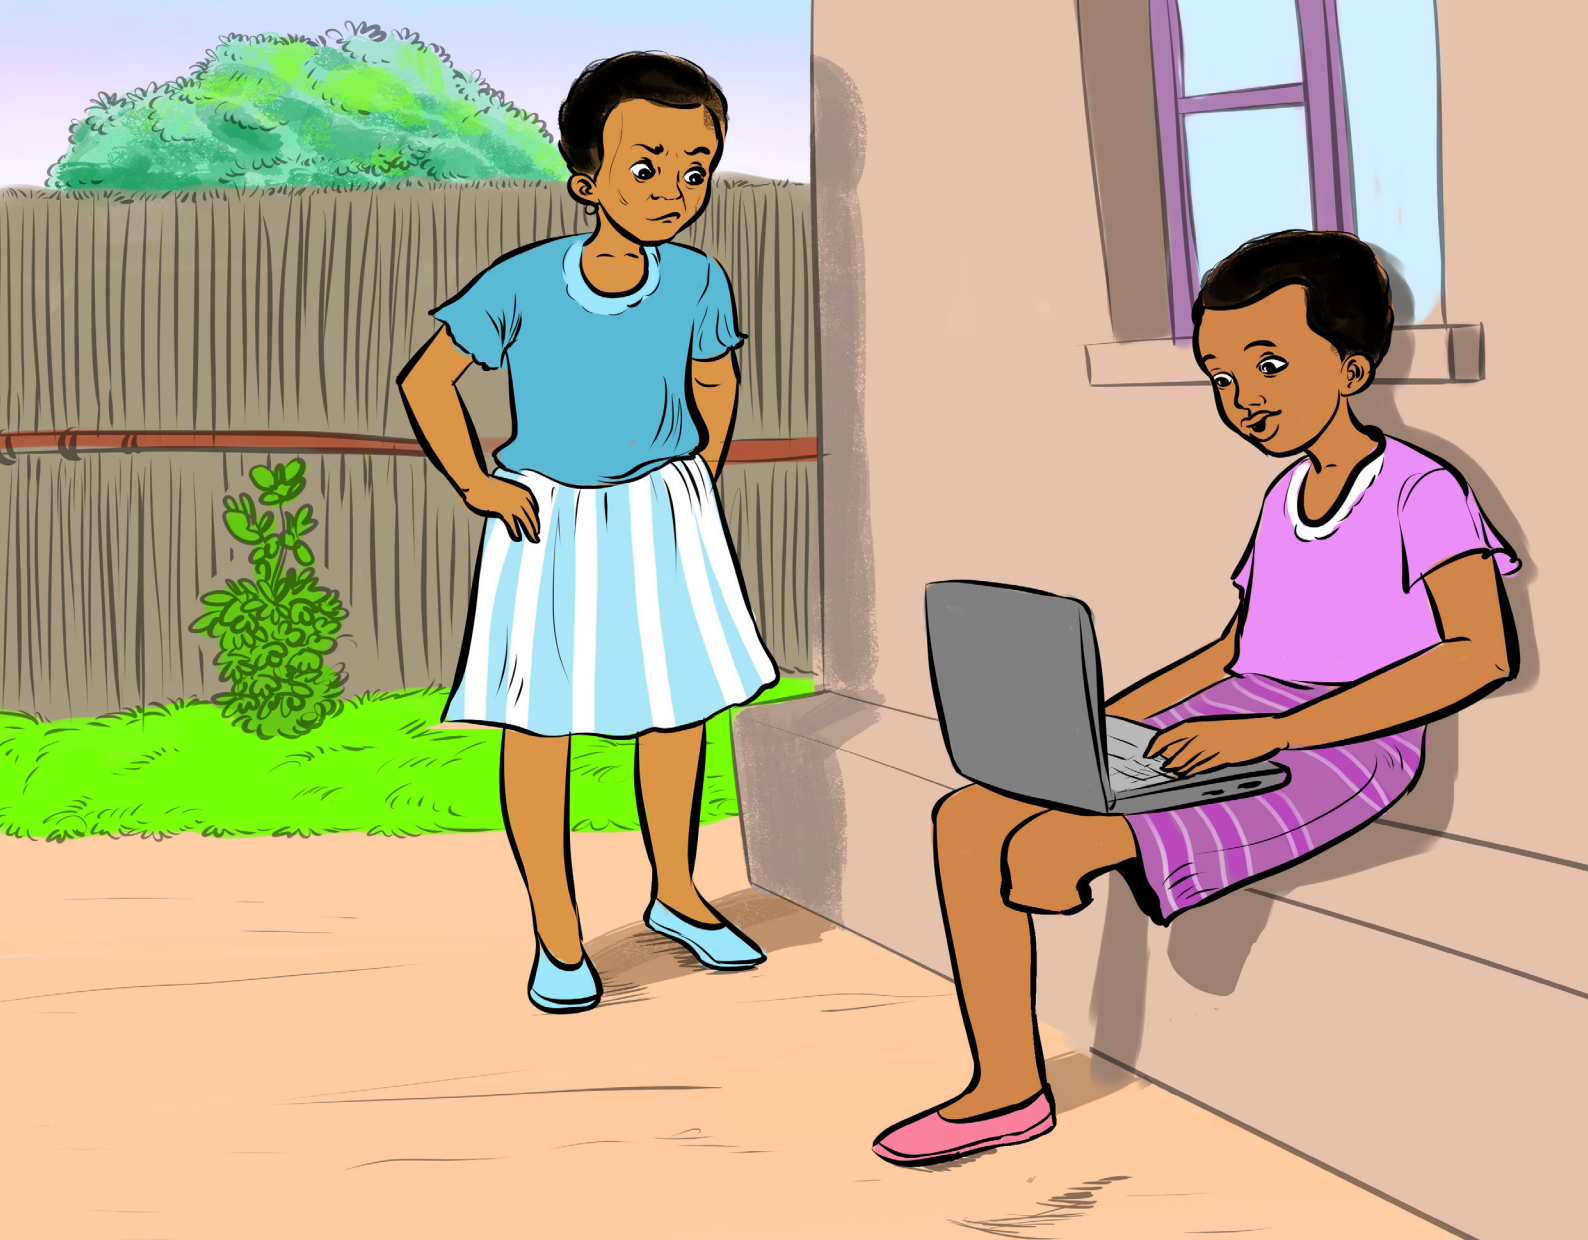

Cyuzuzo and her friends went on watching children's movies.

It did not take Kaliza long to reap the rewards from her vegetable garden. They took some vegetables to sell at the market.

The money from the vegetables was not enough. Her parents added some money and used it to buy Kaliza a laptop.

Cyuzuzo saw it and said, “I want a laptop too.” “Don’t worry. We will be sharing this. Ok?” said Kaliza. “Thank you, sister,” replied Cyuzuzo.

This book is about Kaliza, a kid who used her home vegetable garden to support her studies.
